

To whom it may concern:

Please consider legalizing medical marijuana for children. Many children have diseases especially seizure disorders that would benefit from this.

The particular strains we are concerned with should contain no more than 0.3% (three-tenths of a percent) THC.

Thank you,

Danielle McCain